

SMITH-MADRONE

www.smithmadrone.com

Recent Blogging about our Chardonnay 2008

Lively aromas of crisp green apple, lemon, and wet river rocks. The lively acid gives this wine its good structure, and is balanced by the oak, citrus, apple, and Crème brûlée flavors. The creamy texture and balanced alcohol combine with the complexity of flavors to give this wine a nice medium long finish.

Vintuba.com, “Chris O, the everyman’s wine snob” podcast, September 28, 2009

Bacchus and Beery Wine Blog, October 31, 2010

Very well-balanced with a touch of oak, butter, pears and a hint of lemon.

The Denver Dish Blog, October 13, 2010

A buttery nose with tart flavors of green apple and a savory aftertaste paired delicately with an incredible dish of veal sweetbreads.